Chicken Wellington

4 boneless chicken breasts	1 tablespoon olive oil
2 tablespoons butter softened and divided	¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dried rosemary, crushed	1 slightly beaten egg
½ teaspoon rubbed sage	1/4 cup pepper
Slices of Mozzarella cheese
2 packages refrigerated pie pastry or homemade pastry
1 package Williams's gravy (follow instructions on package)

Using a mallet, flatten chicken to ¼ inch thickness. In a large skillet, cook chicken in oil and 1 tablespoon butter for 4-5 minutes on each side or until juices run clear.

In small bowl, combine rosemary, sage, salt, pepper and remaining butter. Unroll pastry sheets; cut each into 9-inch squares. Place a chicken breast on one half of each square. Spread chicken with butter mixture. Place a piece of cheese on top of chicken. Fold pastry over chicken pinch seams to seal. It will look like a hot pocket. Place on a greased baking sheet brush with egg. Bake at 450 degrees for 18-20 minutes or until golden brown.

Steam Vegetables: broccoli, cauliflower, carrots, and zucchini

Strawberry Trifle

1 store bought Angel food cake or home made one
3 baskets strawberries
12 oz cool whip
Sugar

Slice the angel food cake in three sections vertically; each layer will look like a ring. Clean, slice and sugar to taste strawberries. Thaw cool whip. In a trifle bowl layer cake, strawberries and cool whip; ending with cool whip and strawberries for decoration.

Happy Father's Day to all you dads.

We love and appreciate you.

We are praying for you daily.

Getting Through the Tough Stuff

By Charles Swindoll

Despite our deep seated—and very natural—desires for trouble free, happy, secure existences, Christians everywhere face family struggles, financial crises, debilitating diseases and crushing disappointments. Does that mean God is not happy with us? Are these tough times punishment for sin or correction for misdeeds? Maybe. God does discipline His children when He wants to correct behavior. But the reality is, because you're human, you're going to struggle with tough stuff. Life is tough! Let Dr. Swindoll help you with your tough stuff with this book and be encouraged!

Enjoy the read! Debbie

The Choices We Make

I have chosen the way of truth; Your judgments I have laid before me.

Psalm 119:30, NKJV

From the time we make the choice to open our eyes and get out of bed in the morning until we make the choice to go back to bed and close our eyes in the evening, our days are filled with a series of choices. We choose where we go, what we do,

what we believe, and how we behave.

Our own lives, reputations, relationships, careers, health, future, and values are shaped by the choices we make. The choice to lie or to tell the truth, to seek vengeance or to forgive,

to ignore God or to acknowledge God, determines the type of person we are. Without question, the most important choice you will ever make involves your attitude toward God and your relationship with Him.

Blessings,

God's Promise

"Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord, Praise ye the Lord."

Psalm 150:6

Hymn or Worship Song of the Month

Bless Be the Tie That Binds by John Fawcett 1740-1817

John Fawcett was born of poor parents in Yorkshire, England, in 1740. He was converted to Christ as the age of 16 through the ministry of George Whitefield. At the age of 26 he was ordained as a Baptist minister. During one of his ensuing sermons Fawcett shared this hymn text with his congregation. The poem was first printed in 1782 under the title "Brotherly Love", in a collection containing 166 of Fawcett's poems. The tune "DENNIS" originated in Switzerland and was later purchased by Lowell Mason. It was edited in 1845 by Mason and George Webb with the notation, "arranged from H.G. Naegeli".

Vs. 1 Blest be the tie that binds, our hearts in Christian love! The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.

Vs. 2 Before our Father's throne we pour out ardent prayers; Our fears, our hope, our aims are one, our comforts and our cares.

Vs. 3 We share our mutual woes, our mutual burdens bear, and often for each other flows, the sympathizing tear.

Vs. 4 When we asunder part it gives us inward pain; but we shall still be joined in heart, and hope to meet again.
